Calumet Ave (OLD S.R. 49) • Valparaiso, in 46383 his lawyer, Michael Woods, filed a motion this month for his release from prison under criminal article 4, which requires the state to bring the defendant to trial within six months of his detention. His lawyer, Michael Woods, filed a motion this month seeking his release under Article 4 of the Criminal Code, which requires a defendant to stand trial within six months in the District of Indiana and Porter & Valparaisothis, a movie theater near Valbo, Valparaiso, Burns Harbor, Chesterton, Donnie Dadan, Porter, Westville, Odis, Wheeler, Portage, Ogden Dons. Located in Valparaiso, the 49er Drive-In Theater is the only command theater in northwestern Indiana and one of only about 300 theaters in the entire country. This beloved Indiana dune attraction has been showing movies for over 60 years. Retains its original look and classic design, but is updated with a modern display and amenities. Movie-makers can enjoy all aspects of the built-in 50s drive with modern-day comfort. The front gates open early, giving plenty of time to park, buy food and drinks, and get settled and comfortable either in your car or in garden chairs brought from home. Just be ready to sharpen your car's horn right before the movie starts! A long-standing tradition of honking during a pre-show song lets children (and adults!) get all of the pent-up energy before the movie begins. Double features appear at night from June to August, and on weekends in April, May, September and October. Watch two movies for the price of one with each visit! Check out their website for movies and special events. Looking for more Indiana dunes should be seen and dos?
